2004 FFFNA REUNION IN SAVANNAH, GEORGIA

It is time to be thinking about attending the 2004 FFFNA Reunion and time to make reservations while rooms are still available. Not having first hand information, your newsletter editor can only provide what information he has been learned through others. The reunion will be held on Friday through Sunday, July 16 - 18, 2004 at The Radisson Hotel. The hotel address is 411 West Bay Street in Savannah. Reservations may be made by telephoning The Radisson at (912) 790-7070. As best as I can determine, the reunion hotel room price is $109.00 per night at the Radisson. When you call for reservations, be sure to tell them you are attending the Fulgham-Fulghum Family National Reunion so they will give you the reunion room rate. Parking is available at the hotel.

For those wishing to travel in Recreation Vehicles, there are three recreation vehicle parks in the locale of Savannah. The Almar Mobile Home Park [telephone (912) 964-9917] is the closest to downtown. See Page 4 for further information on RV parks.

Several highlights of the reunion have been announced. First, on Saturday morning, there will be a session on learning to surf the family websites on the Internet (the Internet address of the Fulgham-Fulghum Homepage is found on Page 4 of this issue for those who may wish to see the homepage with the links to the FFFNA databases).

Second, also on Saturday morning, the planning for the FFFNA 2007 Reunion in the Isle of Wight County, Virginia area will be discussed. Please see page 4 for the article on JAMESTOWNE. With many of the events planned to commemorate the settlement at Jamestown as well as the pilgrimage to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the restoration of St. Luke's Church Shrine at which the Fulgh*m Family will be featured, the events in May of 2007 are a MUST for Fulgh*m's to attend - a once in a lifetime series of events for our family. It has been rumored that Queen Elizabeth II of England may be present in Jamestown in May 2007 for some of the Jamestown 2007 Commemoration events.

Another highlight of the 2004 FFFNA Reunion will be the Saturday evening dinner at Olde Fort Jackson with Low Country Cuisine and entertainment - a really special feature for this year's reunion.

In Memoriam

George David Fulghum, Jr. 87, of Memphis, Tennessee died 10 January 2004 at Methodist Healthcare University Hospital. He was the son of George D. Fulghum and Lillie Myrtle Willis and was born in Tipton County, TN 6 December 1916. George married Theo A. Mosley 13 November 1942 and they had two daughters, Ann Stalls and Carolyn Pickens, all of Memphis, five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

George was a retired parts manager for NAPA and a deacon at Raleigh Baptist Church. Services were conducted at the Roller Funeral Home in Memphis and interment was in Memphis Memory Gardens 13 January.

George was an active member of the Fulgham-Fulghum Family National Association and attended annual reunions until poor health would no longer permit. George attended the first FFFNA reunion in 1985 at Rock Ridge, NC, delighting attendees by bringing a load of Tennessee barbecue to compete with North Carolina barbecue. George was helpful in conducting both reunions held in Tennessee (Nashville, 1988 and Memphis, 1995).

Mara Fulghum Sprot, Tennessee representative to the FFFNA Board of Directors attended the funeral service representing George's extended Fulgham-Fulghum family.

Billy W. Fulghum, 53, of Rock Ridge, North Carolina died 4 January 2003. He was the son of Willis and Grace Fulghum. Burial in Marsh Swamp Free Will Baptist Church Cemetery.

REUNION

Plan now to attend the 2004 FFFNA annual reunion in Savannah, Georgia

Janie Fulghum Todd, 92, of Pace, Florida died 30 December 2003. She was born 15 January 1911 in Pensacola, Florida

She was the eldest living member of the First Baptist Church. She is survived by her sister, Julia Fulghum Bales; six nieces and nephews and many grand and great nieces and nephews.

Janie was preceded in death by her infant child, Betty Dean Todd, and by her husband Charles Robert Todd, as well as by her brother, Steven F. Fulghum, and sister, Betty Fulghum Rhodes.

Janie and her husband, Charles Robert Todd, owned and operated Ferris Warehouse for many years.

Services were held by the Rev. Bill Santo of the First Baptist Church. Interment was in Bayview Memorial Park.

Edith Fulghum Myrick, 87, of Littleton, NC died 14 December 2003 in Canton, NC. She was born 26 October 1916, daughter of Eugene Sherrod Fulghum and Virginia C. Long Fulghum. She is survived by her daughter, Gail and Son-in-law Beecher C. Allison, Granddaughter Amy Allison Edwards and husband, Jonathan; Granddaughter Marsha, and Grandson, Beacher Allison Jr. Also sisters Jean Fulghum Hudgins, Jewel Fulghum Broome, brother Eugene S. Fulghum, Jr and sister-in-law, Patricia R. Fulghum. Numerous nieces and nephews.

Burial in the cemetery at Calvary Methodist Church, Littleton, NC beside her husband, Lewis Carl Myrick.

YOUNG OLYMPIAN

Patrick Fulghum Qualifies for the National Junior Olympics in Cross Country.

Patrick Fulghum, age 11, knew he was a good runner but wanted to try it as a serious sport this season. He joined the Potomac Valley Track Club, www.pvtc.org near his home in the Northern Virginia suburbs of Washington, DC. He runs 3 kilometers (1.86 miles) in an 11-12 year age group.

This season, Patrick won every local meet in which he raced, setting the club's 3 K record for his age group. Due to snow, the local qualifying run for the Junior Olympics in the DC area was cancelled; however, all runners were advanced to the regional competition (included Georgia, North and South Carolina, Virginia DC, and southern Maryland). In the regional competition Patrick came in 5th with a time of 10:45, a personal best!

Easily qualifying for the National Junior Olympics on December 13, 2003, he headed out to Albuquerque, NM with his Dad and Brother to compete with the elite runners in the Nation. The altitude at 5050 feet turned out to be his most challenging opponent. About 10th place 3/4 of the way through the race, he "hit the wall," struggling to finish but still coming in a very respectable 36th out of 265 young men.

His team was able to finish second earning him a medal and an award.

Patrick, we of the Fulgh*m clan are all very proud of you!

Good luck in your future races!

Another Distinguished Fulgh*m Author

Richard Lee Fulgham and his mentor, Norman Mailer, got together to discuss creative fiction and nonfiction novels at Norman Mailer's home. Norman Mailer, controversial literary lion asked his 32 year penpal and student to have dinner with him and his family at their Cape Cod home the summer before.

Richard, who published his first book at age 50, finally got to meet his mentor and discuss their respective books in person. Both are especially interested in historical narrative – nonfiction written with the novelist's insight and skill to keep the reader absorbed in the tale.

Richard Fulgham was born in Dachau, Germany but was raised in the deep South. He received his BA from the University of Georgia and his MA in the United Kingdom. He served in the U.S. Navy.

Some of Richard Fulgham's works include Appalachian Genesis (Overmountain, 2001), The Crippled Lion (Adams 1986), Tales By Moonlight with foreword by Stephen King (Garcia and TOR 1985, and many magazine articles.

Fulgham has won two Virginia Associated Press writing awards and many VA state environmental writing awards.

Richard Fulgham and his wife, Janet, live in Maryland.

The recently published, Some Descendents of Raiford and Winnefred Pierce Fulghum, by Carolyn Ericson is available from ERICSON BOOKS, 1614 Redbud St., Nacogdoches, TX 75965-2936. The book features the Texas descendents of Raiford and Winnefred Fulghum. Cost with shipping & handling is $21.50

JAMESTOWNE 2007

And the Selection of the FFFNA as a Virginia 2007 Community

The Commonwealth of Virginia will celebrate the 400th anniversary of the settlement of the Jamestown Colony in 2007 with a statewide calendar of activities. Cities, towns, counties, and other groups will add their own celebrations to a highlight commemoration in Jamestown, itself, in May 2007. Other statewide activities will take place throughout the year. www.Jamestown2007.org

The Fulgham-Fulghum Family National Association was the first family group to be selected as one of the "Virginia Communities" for the celebration. Our family was invited to participate because of its heritage in Virginia, having settled there about 1640 and because of its plans for a FFFNA reunion in Virginia in 2007.

Plans for the Virginia 2007 Community Program to celebrate the landing and settlement at Jamestown in 1607 began to come together at a Thursday, January 22nd meeting in Richmond, VA., of representatives from the Virginia Communities from all over Virginia. Included were representatives from FFFNA. Carolyn A. Fulghum of Greenville, NC and Ted Crossland of Yorktown, VA are serving as Co-Chairmen on the Jamestown celebration committee for the FFFNA.

Preliminary plans call for the Fulgham-Fulghum Family National Association to conduct its annual Reunion on the south side of the James River across from Jamestown in Isle of Wight County, VA, in 2007. St. Luke's Church National Shrine near Smithfield, VA., has invited the Fulgh*ms to attend and be the featured family at the 50th Pilgrimage to celebrate the restoration of the 17th century church. Michael Fulgham sold the acre of land "whereon the church house now standeth" to the church vestry in 1683. For this reason the Curator of St. Luke's, Richard Austin, selected our family to be the featured family and to present the history of the family at the Pilgrimage service on May 20, 2007 at 4 PM.. Robert Lee Fulghum, noted American author, has been asked, and has agreed, to serve as spokesman for the family at the Pilgrimage.

"COME HOME TO VIRGINIA!"

Members of the family are urged to make plans to attend the 2007 FFFNA Reunion and festivities in May of 2007. Also, visit Colonial Williamsburg, VA.

MATERIALS SUBCOMMITTEE BEGINS SURVEY FOR MUSEUM/LIBRARY

The Materials subcommittee of the Marketing Committee plans an ongoing survey of materials available for the Fulgh*m Museum and Library. Following the initial survey of available materials, an inventory will be conducted to categorize the materials. This will furnish information to help to consider what exhibit facilities will initially be needed in the display area of the building.

Inserted in this newsletter is a "Museum/Library Materials Form" which the subcommittee requests that you complete for each item you wish to donate to or lend to the Fulgh*m Museum/Library. We request that you have copies of the form made if you have multiple items to list in the survey. Participating in the survey will help very much so that the subcommittee will have records of the items and the donors or lenders.

The materials Subcommittee is also interested in knowing the location of other Fulgh*m Family material that will not be available for gifting to the Fulgh*m Museum/Library. Perhaps such materials may be available for short, temporary loans for copying, or copies may be available. If you have or know of such materials in the possession of individuals, libraries, etc., please fill out the "Materials Information Form" so we will know where such items are located.

Please submit your form(s) to the subcommittee chairman anytime after the first of April. The address after 1 April 2004 is:

Robert S. Fulghum
1111 Main Street, Apt 203
Danville, Virginia 24541-2951

NEWSLETTER EDITOR ON THE MOVE --AGAIN !?!

Yes, Esther and I have decided that we are going to move again in March. As we age, the lure of the piedmont area and the mountains of Virginia as well as our strong desire to be closer to our closest relatives compels us to move. While Lake Prince Center in Suffolk, Virginia has wonderful residents and we have made many good friends at Lake Prince, we are moving to Stratford House in Danville, Virginia. Danville is about 30 miles west of where Esther's Mother, who is 101 years old, lives, and about 80 miles from Roanoke, VA where I grew up. Stratford House, www.stratford-house.com is a continuing care retirement community similar to Lake Prince Center but smaller. Our new Address is shown above. Our telephone number will be announced later.

FULGHAM-FULGHUM FAMILY ON THE INTERNET

Brent Fulgham has recently revised the Fulgham-Fulghum Homepage. Brent has made the homepage much more attractive and readable than it was. He and his father, Grant, have uploaded the revised FFFNA database to two Internet sites. The FFFNA database now has over 13,000 names of Fulgh*ms, Fulgh*m's wives, and Fulgh*m daughter's husbands. The data associated with living people is masked to protect their privacy but their names should be there. Links to these sites are found on the Fulgham-Fulghum Homepage:

The Early History of the Fulgham-Fulghum Family National Association

James E. (Jim) Fulghum, Wilson, North Carolina)

(The Newsletter Editor has requested that I recount the origin of the Fulgham/Fulghum Family National Association.)

In 1983, I became interested in genealogy and began to attempt to trace my roots. One of my cousins, the late J. Carl Fulghum, was helpful to me. He provided me with a copy of a little handwritten booklet that was prepared by the late James Hooks Fulghum of Roanoke, Virginia, who had visited my home area, Wilson County, North Carolina, and with the help of the late Raiford Fulghum of Kenly, North Carolina, had compiled a listing of the Fulghums of Wilson County.

Meanwhile, like many others across the country, I had received a mailing from an Ohio firm that claimed to be expert genealogists and could provide me with a complete history of my family along with a national mailing list of Fulghums. I responded to the mailing with the form they sent and a check. A few weeks later I received a mailing providing me with a sketchy, mostly puff, attempt at impressing me with some semblance of a family history and with a mailing list of about 200 Fulghums from across the country that purported to be a full and complete listing. That list, however thin, would prove to be very valuable later.

Meanwhile, some visits to the Wilson County Library, to which I was to serve as a Trustee later, exposed me to Boddie's extensive works of the COLONIAL FAMILIES OF VIRGINIA, and acquainted me with Captain Anthony Foljambe-Fulgham who had arrived and settled in Isle of Wight County, Virginia, about 1641. Boddie's work attributed Captain Anthony to the distinguished Foljambe Family of Derbyshire in England and listed his father as Major General Hercules Foljambe who accompanied the Duke of Cumberland in his invasion of Puerto Rico in 1597. At this time I prepared a letter to the Vicar of the Church at Bakewell in Derbyshire requesting a copy of the pamphlet giving the history of that church. I sent along a small contribution. Shortly afterward, I received a copy of the booklet, along with a nice letter from the Vicar, and the booklet informed me that an Alabaster bust of Sir Godfrey Foljambe and his wife, Avena Ireland, was prominently displayed in the chancel of the church, the chancel being a gift of the couple to the church.

Several other trips to the county Library acquainted me with the works of Burke and in Burke's LANDED GENTRY, I was able to piece together a loose line of the Foljambe Family from the time it accompanied William The Conqueror in his conquest of England in 1066, to Captain Anthony, the purported son of Hercules Foljambe, the first arrival of our family from England in 1641. It was then in early 1984 that I received another mailing offering me a full glimpse of the Fulghum Family from a physician in Florida, the late James E. Fulghum, MD. Since he had the same name as me and since he was a physician, I decided he might have something better than the firm in Ohio. I wrote for his book sending along the required check. A few days later I was surprised to receive a telephone call from this same James E. Fulghum (Later to be known affectionately as "Dr. Jim") of Jacksonville, Florida, and, after some introductory comments, he wondered if he could travel, with his wife, up to visit with me. I inferred I would be glad to have them and in a few days he arrived with his wife and with his book in hand.

Dr. Jim, right away, told me that while he had done lots of work on the family in England, he was still somewhat in the dark about the family in America and had some blank spots in his own lineage.

As we visited, we started talking about our mutual desire to know more about the family in the United States. I suggested that a reunion might help bring folks together from all over. His question was, "How do we get them to attend?" That's when I pulled out the mailing list of Fulghums that I had received from the firm in Ohio. Note it was only Fulghums. There were no Fulghams on the list. We decided to try.

It was decided to have that first reunion in Rock Ridge, the heaviest enclave of Fulghums in North Carolina. At the time we thought North Carolina had the most members of the family. Now we know that several other states, like Mississippi, Georgia, Florida, and Tennessee, with both "-am" and "-um" Fulgh*ms, have more. The best date, we decided, was Memorial Day weekend, 1985.

I put a local committee together and we started planning. On the committee were the late Libba Fulghum King, Carolyn A. Fulghum, later a family association President, Bobby Boykin, with family connections, Larry Fulghum, and Bill Fulghum.

I operated a public relations firm at the time, so I put together an announcement flyer. My office staff addressed the envelopes and got out the flyer in a mailing.

We were amazed at the returns. They were coming from everywhere. There were so many out-of-staters that I decided to have a party for those from out of state in my back yard on Saturday evening, prior to the reunion on Sunday. The party was great and I got to know a lot of Fulghums.

The next day we gathered at Rock Ridge behind the school and had a dinner on the grounds. Raiford Fulghum, his son Larry, and Raiford's other sons, barbecued a pig, area Fulghums brought food baskets, and we purchased some additional food. In addition, the late George Fulghum of Memphis, brought a load of Tennessee barbecue. We had a rousing good time. We had pulled in a tractor-trailer flatbed to be used as a stage, and Dr. Jim and I performed as co-presiders and tried to excite the crowd which was not difficult. We had about 300 attendees from 25 states.

It was decided to have a second reunion in two years, and Tommy Fulghum, then of Wadley, Georgia, and now of Augusta, invited us to Wadley for the next reunion. The second reunion became a big success at Coleman Lake outside Wadley in 1987. It was there that we decided to have reunions every year and the late Sam Fulghum invited us to Tennessee for 1988. In Nashville, it was decided to form the Fulgham/Fulghum Family National Reunion and I had the honor of being elected the first President. Tom Fulghum of Midlothian, Virginia was elected Vice President, Peggy Fulghum Wood of Jacksonville, Florida, was elected Secretary & Treasurer, and Dr. Jim of Jacksonville, was elected Historian. It was decided to have the fourth reunion in 1989 in Isle of Wight County, Virginia, where Captain Anthony Fulgham first settled the family back in 1641. Highlight of that reunion was the appearance of Robert Lee Fulghum of Seattle, Washington, the noted best selling author who started his string of best sellers with All I Needed to Know I Learned in Kindergarten.

Since then we have been all over the country with our annual reunions and the Fulgham-Fulghum Family National Association is getting stronger and stronger. We hope to see a big crowd of the family this year in Savannah, Georgia in July.

MEET MY FAMILY GROUP, Part 6, My Grandfather by Robert S. Fulghum, Newsletter Editor

Charles Mallary Fulghum, 1860 - 1921

Left:
Charles Mallory Fulghum
and wife, Matilda Slade
Fulghum

Right:
Charles Mallory Fulghum
and sons, James Hooks
Fulghum (to the right) and
Charles Bennett Fulghum

Charles Mallary Fulghum was the ninth child of James Fulghum and Jane (Harrison) Fulghum. He was born 5 August 1860 in Washington County, Georgia. Orphaned at age 3, Charles was reared by the Nathaniel Hooks family. He was married on 30 November 1887 at Sanderson, Georgia to Matilda (Slade) Fulghum (born 21 March 1864 in Linton, Georgia, died 9 February 1955 in Macon, Georgia). Charles and Tillie had eight children: May, died soon after birth; Sarah Frances (Fulghum) Uehara (born 20 May 1890, died 1973); Matilda, died as infant; Lillian Winefred (born 10 August 1894, died 1962); Charles Mallary, died as infant; Nathaniel, died as infant; James Hooks (born 18 September 1905; died 1982); and Charles Bennett (born 23 November 1906, died 1976).

Charles worked as a building contractor, wholesale and retail grocer, and merchant-broker in Macon, Georgia. He was a Baptist Deacon in the Vineville Baptist Church of Macon. He also was an incessant student of the Bible. Self-educated and extremely well-read, he was on the Executive Council of Mercer University in Macon.

His children were brought up in a very religious home that provided a rather strict Baptist environment. Consequently, they excelled in their work. A brief sketch of each of them follows:

Sarah Frances Fulghum graduated from Bessie Tift College in 1911, became a voice teacher, later graduated from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky, became a Baptist missionary to Japan, married a Japanese physician (Dr. Nobuaki Uehara, b 3 March 1905, d 2 July 1987), and had two daughters, Lillian Natsue Uehara (b 1930) and Anne Kazue Uehara (b 1932). Sarah Frances lived in Japan from 1918 until her death in 1973. Her daughters immigrated to the United States after World War II.

Lillian Winefred Fulghum attended Bessie Tift College, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and Mercer University. She was a kindergarten teacher in Macon. Never married, she died in Milledgeville State Hospital.

James Hooks Fulghum graduated from Mercer University and attended law school. He married Frances W. Schmidt and they had four children (See the article on James Hooks Fulghum in the next issue of FFFF).

Charles Bennett Fulghum, Sr., MD married Elizabeth Moore (1902-1976). They had two sons, Charles Bennett Fulghum, Jr. (1931-1995) and David Dowell Fulghum, MD (1937- ). Charles Bennett Fulghum, Sr. graduated from Mercer University and the Medical College of Georgia in Augusta. He practiced medicine in Milledgeville, Georgia at Baldwin Memorial Hospital until his death in 1976.

Charles Mallary Fulghum died 3 September 1921. He is buried in Riverside Cemetery, Macon, Georgia.

Editorial Note: The spelling of Charles M. Fulghum's middle name has been found both as Mallary and Mallory. From his own recording of his name in the Family Bible he and Tillie owned, Charles preferred the spelling Mallary. The spelling Mallory was used in newspaper articles after his death.

Association Goals:

- ☞ ...to foster and encourage Family education & fellowship.
- ☞ ...to assist, in every possible way, the preservation and communication of the Family heritage.
- ☞ ...to continue researching & recording the history of the Family, its branches and related historical events.
- ☞ ...to collect artifacts, lore and documentation for the Family archives.
- ☞ ...to sustain a program whose purpose is to put concerned Family members in touch with one another and interested groups.
- ☞ ...to serve as a means of communication between all who care about the preservation of the Family heritage and historical event stories.
- ☞ ...to continue publication of the Fulgham-Fulghum Family Facts, a wholly unique periodical publication dedicated solely to interesting historical aspects of the Family, also to detail current happenings and, in general, to inform, educate and entertain concerned members.
- ☞ ...to maintain and constantly update a comprehensive research library with books, family data sheets, photographs, video tapes & documentation archives containing material relating to the Family.
- ☞ ...to raise funds for approved worthy causes, such as, educational foundations, research and Family associated events & materials, and for the proposed FFFNA Museum-Archives-building.

All of you are important to the family Association as we hang together in history. Communication through the newsletter is how we effectively hang together. That communication is very expensive. Your contributions over and above dues will help us continue with a quarterly newsletter for everyone. We should cling to every known Fulgham-Fulghum, and continue the effort to search for more
